Donate a Mammogram

Please tell ten friends to tell ten today! The Breast Cancer site offers free mammograms for underprivileged woman. It takes less than a minute to go to their site and click on "donating a mammogram" for free (pink window in the middle). This doesn't cost you a thing. Their corporate sponsors/advertisers use the number of daily visits to donate mammogram in exchange for advertising.

Here's the web site! Pass it along to people you know: www.thebreastcancersite.com
Again, Please tell 10 Friends to Tell 10 Today!

Some Brooklyn Museum of Art Happenings

Assyrian Reliefs at the Brooklyn Museum of Art

The highlight of this exhibition is twelve monumental alabaster reliefs from the Northwest Palace of the Assyrian king Ashur-nasir-pal II (883-859 B.C.E.). The Northwest Palace was discovered by an Englishman, Henry Layar, in 1846.

American Identities: A New Look at the Brooklyn Museum

This reinstallation of the Brooklyn Museum of Art's American art holdings, one of the great American art collections in the world, includes works by such artists as Thomas Cole, John Singer Sargent, Thomas Eakins, and Georgia O'Keeffe among many others.

Museum Hours: Wed.-Fri., 10am-5pm. Sat&Sun., 11am-6pm. Open 11am-11pm the 1st Saturday of each month. Museum Admission: $6 for adults, $3 for students and seniors. Members are admitted free.

Scholarships Available to Military Dependents

The Military Officers Association of America (MOAA) is giving away scholarship money to 50 college-bound or undergraduate students with individual $1000 scholarship grants for the 2004-2005 school year.

To be eligible, a student must be under age 24, working on a first undergraduate degree, and a dependent child of an active duty service person - enlisted, warrant officer, or officer - in the United States Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, Coast Guard, Public Health Service, or National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. This includes members of the drilling Reserves and National Guard. An applicant must be the DEPENDENT CHILD of an ACTIVE DUTY member or DRILLING Reserve/National Guard member. An applicant must be a high school senior or college student planning to attend an accredited college or university as a full-time student in the fall of 2004. Grant recipients will be randomly selected from among applicants within each of the seven services. No GPA, SAT or essays will be needed for Base/Post application. MOAA membership is not a requirement.

Application is via the MOAA website: <http://www.moaa.org>. Click on "Educational Aid" on left side of the opening page, and then follow the easy instructions for the multipurpose Scholarship Application. Deadline for submission is Noon, EST March 1, 2004.

Paperwork from the MOAA can be picked up at the Education Center on Fort Hamilton, Bldg. 218, 1st Floor, main area.

Fitness For You

Fitness Center Hours

Mon - Fri 6a.m. to 9 p.m.

Sat - Sun 10a.m. to 6 p.m.

Holidays Closed

Some classes may be cancelled due to unforeseen situations. It's advised that you call ahead to ensure the class you want to attend will be conducted. Call the gym at 718-630-4793 to ensure your class will be held. The Fitness Center requires that all personnel using the facility bring with them an extra pair of workout athletics shoes to be used within the fitness center. This will help ensure the equipment and the general facility will remain in good quality condition.
